CERTIFICATION

A seller that has reason to believe that the certificate is not accurate, complete or applicable to the transaction, may not accept the certificate in good faith and the seller will not be relieved of the burden of proving entitlement to the exemption. A seller that accepts a certificate in good faith will be relieved of the burden of proof and the purchaser may be required to establish the accuracy of the claimed exemption as provided in ARS § 42-5022. Subsequent use or consumption of the tangible personal property by the purchaser other than the sale in the ordinary course of business will subject the purchaser to the Arizona use tax. Willful misuse of this Certificate will subject the purchaser to criminal penalties of a felony pursuant to ARS § 42-1127.B.2.

I, (print full name) _____, hereby certify that these purchases are for resale and that the information on this Certificate is true, accurate and complete. Further, if purchasing as an agent or officer, I certify that I am authorized to execute this Certificate on behalf of the purchaser named above.
